- increased international impressions
- Adjusted EBITDA -- $542 million, with a margin of 41%
- Pinterest designed for the AI shift
- very positive tone by CEO
- BUT FLAG bcs not satisfied with Q4 revenue performance
- EXOGENOUS shock with tariffs
- clear path forward is said, sounds motivated
- competition !!!
- big AI integration
- need to accelerate growth
- ROAD bidding in Q1 2025
- so basically growth lower than expectations but not LOW for a quarter so not bad but not great

Decision: HOLD, -0.1 sentiment. Time taken: 25 minutes

Q1 - 2026 - Q&A only

- mention of strong quarter with broadening of revenue base; ads
- Q1 revenue accelerated faster than Q4

- strong early results
- international revenue is smaller portion of business

Q3 - 2025 - Prepared remarks

- eps grew 7%
- FCF of $1.7 billion
- challenging macro environment
- every section continues to grow with electronics at 9% of sales being the fastest growing end market
- but industrial end markets, cautious (trends for Tier 2 and Tier 3 steel mills are considerably more stressed)
- Sales of $8.6 billion are up 3% from last year and 1% sequentially
- Recent weakness in the U.S. dollar led to a currency tailwind of 1%
- guidance of 3% to 6 % EPS growth
- says they remain cautious on outlook

Decision: HOLD, 0.2 sentiment. Time taken: 24 minutes

Q1 - 2026 - Q&A

- not happy w EMEA performance; APAC asw but one off bcs seasonality effects
- not optimistic tone, and not happy w perf
- "And likely, that price will continue to go up and roll its way through."
- expected electronics large contracts
- improvements in Americas on the dislocation or shifting of product
- seeing some contraction in EMEA and both continental Europe.
- Latin American upstream improvements
- fairly good but i would hold

Decision: HOLD, 0.1 sentiment. Time taken: 42 minutes

→ General Mills (GIS)

Q2 - 2026 - Q&A

- great progress in north america
- second half of the year expect to drive category improvement and competitiveness
- volatile environment
- volume turning positive in quarter
- confident tone
- pounds improved
- advertising content and ROIs are improved
- not too much info in the Q&A, nothing negative to flag but nothing very optimistic as well

Decision: BUY; 0.3 sentiment. Time taken: 45 minutes

Q3 - 2026 - Earnings Release

- net sales down 8% w some part bcs of investment

Q4 - 2026 - Prepared remarks

- bold decision to re invest in Remarkability in 2026
- exit the year on stronger foundation w encouraging improvements in household penetration and base volume and innovation
- optimistic prediction for 2027
- net sales slightly up which is better than Q3; so getting there
- diluted EPS up 27% great sign
- operating losses are high tho
- but said that inflation pressure will initially outpace productivity gains in the first half of fiscal year 2027 so no buying

→ Siemens (SIE.DE)

Q4 - 2025 - earnings release

- miss on EPS and revenue forecasts (18% down for EPS)
- net income down YoY
- numbers are down overall
- outlook for 2026 expect negative currency effects affecting EPS; profit and nominal growth rate but expect global economic environment to stabilise

Decision: SELL; -0.5 sentiment. Time taken: 25 minutes

Q1 - 2026 - earnings release

- Revenue is up YoY
- profit for industrial business asw except healthineers
- profit margin up in each industry
- BUT EPS is down around 40%
- Healthineers volume development influenced by negative currency translation effects
- outlook for year: expect EPS growth and then same as last quarter's expectations

Decision: HOLD; 0.2 sentiment. Time taken: 28 minutes

Q2 - 2026 - earnings release

- similar as last Q4 2025 quarters for numbers but revenue is slightly down and eps down but not as much as before like less than 10%
- profit margin has taken a hit in some industries
- outlook is the same

Decision: HOLD; 0.1 sentiment. Time taken: 23 minutes
